

Tyler's Tantrum

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Tyler wanted a cookie.
Mom would not give him a cookie.
Why not? He wanted one more.

He already had four cookies.
He wanted five cookies.
How could he get one more cookie?

He cried and screamed.
He stomped his feet.
He pulled his hair.
He tried to bite mommy.

He kicked and screamed more.
He wanted a cookie!
He was so angry.
But, he was getting tired.

He kicked and cried more.
He fell down.
Now he was really tired.
He did not want a cookie now.

Mom hugged him.
A hug was better than a cookie.
Now he was happy.
There were always cookies tomorrow.

Tyler's Tantrum

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Use the information in the story to answer the questions below.

1. What does Tyler want?
 - A. a cookie
 - B. cake
 - C. candy
 - D. chocolate

2. How many has Tyler had?
 - A. 1
 - B. 2
 - C. 3
 - D. 4

3. How many does Tyler want?
 - A. 3
 - B. 4
 - C. 5
 - D. 6

4. What does Tyler NOT do?
 - A. cry
 - B. scream
 - C. stomp
 - D. sing

5. Who makes Tyler feel better?
 - A. dad
 - B. mom
 - C. sister
 - D. brother

Tyler's Tantrum

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Use the information in the story to answer the questions below.

1. What does Tyler want?

A. a cookie

B. cake

C. candy

D. chocolate

2. How many has Tyler had?

A. 1

B. 2

C. 3

D. 4

3. How many does Tyler want?

A. 3

B. 4

C. 5

D. 6

4. What does Tyler NOT do?

A. cry

B. scream

C. stomp

D. sing

5. Who makes Tyler feel better?

A. dad

B. mom

C. sister

D. brother