

Going Bananas

Story By: Andrew Frinkle

Jane had a cat named Bananas. Bananas was her best friend in the world. They played together every day.

Bananas was a yellow cat. He was very fast. He was a very silly cat. Bananas liked to play. Bananas really liked to play chase.

Bananas liked to chase his tail. Bananas liked to chase a toy mouse. Bananas liked to chase a ball of string. Most of all, Bananas liked to chase Jane and play with her long hair.

One day, Jane got a haircut. Jane liked her new haircut. It was short.

Bananas did not like her new haircut. Bananas did not know her with short hair. He did not know who she was. Bananas hid from Jane.

Jane was very sad. "Mom, Bananas does not like me now!" She cried.

"He will get used to your haircut, Jane. Do not worry."

Mom was right! Three days later, Bananas was not scared of her. Bananas chased her again. But, Bananas still could not play with her hair.

Four months later, Jane's hair was long again. Bananas liked Jane's long hair. Bananas played with her long hair again.

Jane did not get her hair cut short again for a long time. Her cat liked her long hair. Mom liked her long hair. She liked her long hair. Everyone loved her long hair.

Best of all, both Jane and Bananas had yellow hair. That made them the same. They were best friends.
