Honesty

Story by Andrew Frinkle

Honesty is always telling the truth. It is about being trustworthy and loyal. There are many ways to show honesty.

Manny was the classroom's money collector for special events. Whenever the classroom did a collection and gathered money, the class trusted Manny to do it. If he found a penny on the ground, he tried to find the owner. He wouldn't take a cent that wasn't his! Manny was very honest.

Gretchen always told the truth, no matter what. Gretchen wouldn't even lie when a bully wanted her to lie about what she'd seen her do! All of Gretchen's friends wouldn't let anything happen to her, either. They all loved Gretchen for being so honest.
